Dear Mr. Schmall:

I beg to thank you very much for the two Bracteates which you so kindly sent to the Museum. We had neither of these and are very glad to add them to our Collection.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Mr. Schmall:

If you have our copy of the Numismatische Mitteilungen Nürnberg for October 24th of this year, will you look up the full name of the artist who made the Dürer medal,
No. 627, and drop me a line.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Schmall

a friend of mine is very anxious to get one of those Nuremberg counters. Showing a money changer at table on one side and the alphabet on the other.

Have you one you would like to dispose of?

Sincerely

Howland Wood

Dear Mr. Wood:

I regret I have no more specimens of the counter you refer to, as I gave you all I had, including the holed one dated 1553.
If I run across any more, you can rest assured that I will promptly turn them over to you without cost.

Very truly yours,
C. N. Schmall.

P.S. I may be up to see you next Friday or Saturday.

Dear Schmall:

Many thanks for your prompt reply. All the counters we had were varieties. If you are coming up, I would rather have you do so next week instead of this, as our Annual Meeting is on Saturday and I shall be busy every minute of the time this week.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Mr. Schmall:

At last I got the photographs of the two Austrian medals you wished to have done. I worked these on to some other negatives, so there will be no charge.

Very truly yours,

July 15, 1932.

Dear Schmall:

I am sorry to say that Newell turned down the Catana coin. There were a number of things about the reverse that showed it was a modern fabrication.

Very truly yours,
